A Good Voter?

It's not easy to be an informed voter these days. When it comes to education, the voter is frequently confronted with decisions on new problems. You are a good voter on education issues IF——you find out how schools are financed

—you listen to all points of view, pro and con
—you check the voting records of local, state and national candidates on educational issues
—you visit your schools freauently, but especially during

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK
November 8-14, 1959

This being American Education Week, the various schools of Appomattox County are offering the parents and the public a close up view of their respective schools and some of their activities.

According to information received in this office, here are some of the programs taking place this and next week.

APPOMATTOX ELEMENTARY SCHOOL. Dr. Edgar Johnson from Longwood College is to speak to the Appomattox Elementary P.-T. A. on Thursday November 19, at 8:00 P. M.
Each classroom will be open for public Inspect- by 7:30.

A Salute to Our Schools
American Education Week

Parents will have an opportunity to meet the Student Teachers who have been working in the schools this year. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

EVERGREEN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL Is emphasizing the importance of education through the classroom during American Education Week.

OAKVILLE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL Plans a panel discussion on the question; "Is Today's School Curriculum Designed to Prepare Tomorrow's Citizens?" This will be held on Tuesday November 17 at the regular P.-T. A. meeting. Each classroom will be open for inspection by parents and interested citizens. Refreshments will be served.

PAMPLIN ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS On Tuesday November 10, at 7:30 P. M. the P.-T. A. sponsored a book fair to emphasize the importance of reading. On display were books from various Publishers, which could be purchased by the pupils.
Prior to the fair the pupils made posters telling of the fair to be held. These were placed in the various places of business.

SPOUT SPRING Held a special Program on Monday November 9. The pupils presented a play entitled "God Bless America". The Teachers and Pupils emphasized recommended daily topics for American Education Week, Pupils made Posters depicting each topic they discussed.
An open house for parents was also held.

VERA ELEMENTARY SCHOOL Plans to present a play in keeping with American Education Week.

APPOMATTOX HIGH SCHOOL Held a special program during the regular P.-T. A. Night, which was Tuesday November 10. Parents were entertained by several selections sung by the newly formed A. H. S. Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. Bingham.

A special set of educational film slides was presented giving factual information concerning education in Virginia and Appomattox County. Following this an open house was held, and the program was closed with refreshments.

RIDDLE: Why is a good education like "money in the bank"?

SOLUTION: Because education and earning capacity go hand in hand

A Census Bureau report reveals that those who finish elementary school may earn $116,000 in a lifetime; those who finish high school may earn $165,000; those who finish college may earn $268,000. Make sure YOUR child is receiving a good education. Visit your schools during—
